Mass of Peace

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.

We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly king, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the most high, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.
Amen, Amen, Amen.

Holy, holy, holy Lord God of hosts.

Heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

Hosanna in the highest.

When we eat this bread and drink this cup,
we proclaim your death, O Lord, until you come again.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

This Sundays Readings

THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

First reading:      Isaiah 42:1-4, 6-7

‘Behold my servant, in whom my soul delights.’

Thus says the Lord: Behold my servant, whom I uphold, my chosen, in whom my soul delights; I have put my Spirit upon him; he will bring forth justice to the nations. He will not cry aloud or lift up his voice, or make it heard in the street; a bruised reed he will not break, and a faintly burning wick he will not quench; he will faithfully bring forth justice. He will not grow faint or be discouraged till he has established justice in the earth; and the coastlands wait for his law. ‘I am the Lord; I have called you in righteousness; I will take you by the hand and keep you; I will give you as a covenant for the people, a light for the nations, to open the eyes that are blind, to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon, from the prison those who sit in darkness.’

Response: The Lord will bless his people with peace.

Second Reading:      Acts 10:34-38

‘God anointed Jesus with the Holy Spirit.’

In those days: Peter opened his mouth and said: ‘Truly I understand that God shows no partiality, but in every nation anyone who fears him and does what is right is acceptable to him. As for the word that he sent to Israel, preaching good news of peace through Jesus Christ — he is Lord of all — you yourselves know what happened throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee after the baptism that John proclaimed: how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power. He went about doing good and healing all who were oppressed by the devil, for God was with him.’

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia.

The heavens were opened and the voice of the Father thundered:

‘This is my beloved Son; listen to him’.

Alleluia.

Gospel Reading:      Matthew 3:13-17

‘When Jesus was baptised he saw the Spirit of God coming to rest on him.’

At that time: Jesus came from Galilee to the Jordan to John, to be baptised by him. John would have prevented him, saying, ‘I need to be baptised by you, and do you come to me?’ But Jesus answered him, ‘Let it be so now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfil all righteousness.’ Then he consented. And when Jesus was baptised, immediately he went up from the water, and behold, the heavens were opened to him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and coming to rest on him; and behold, a voice from heaven said, ‘This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased.’

REFLECTION

Everything must start somewhere, every enterprise, every journey, every action has a starting point, a place where tomorrow becomes today, and a unique set of events begins to unfold. We are all part of the story that begins today; after perhaps thirty years of obscurity, a carpenter from a small village in Galilee steps into our lives and everything changes. First, John came announcing a baptism of repentance, a preparation for the emergence of the Lamb of God, and he begins a chain of events which culminated in the ministry of Our Saviour and Lord, Jesus Christ and the world was changed forever.

The Baptism of Our Lord speaks to us of our own baptism but, on another dimension, of who we are meant to be. The basic symbols are there; water, to cleanse and refresh us, the Holy Spirit, to be with us throughout our life journey and the Father who acknowledges us as His own children. The inspiring words of Isaiah paint a picture of a role model, one to whom we can aspire to be. Filled with the spirit, he does not call out for attention to himself but stands as an example of a true leader. He speaks without fear, defends the weak, upholds justice, yet he is humble, seeking only to free people from the darkness of this world and to become bearers of light.

Peter is a great example to us of a man who lived the first part of his life as a working man, a fisherman, but, due to a meeting with Jesus, one who leaves his old life for an uncertain future. He never quotes scripture, he is full of doubt, always striving to make sense of this strange force, which compels him to follow Jesus, even though he is struggling to understand what He is about. A man, who, after the resurrection, becomes the leader of the church takes him from his lowly background to a place where he speaks to and teaches Cornelius, a representative of Roman power and influence, about the true King of Kings, Jesus Christ.

The Sacrament of Baptism is celebrated almost every week in at least one of our churches. It is a public act, open to all. Those of us born into the church cannot remember our own Baptism. If you have the opportunity to be present at a Baptism, just sit quietly and watch, in wonder, at the ceremony unfolding before your eyes. Be present as the Holy Spirit descends on another Christian soul.

Kids Corner: A Bit About... Baptism

A sacrament is an outward sign of a grace that God gives us in our soul. When we are baptized, water is poured on our head as a symbol of the sin being washed out of our soul.

You might be wondering if babies need to get baptized when they haven't even done any sins yet. But baptism also takes away original sin, which comes to us from Adam and Eve. Baptism also gives us the grace we need to live a good Christian life. Of course babies can't sin when they are very young, but Baptism will give them grace when they need it.

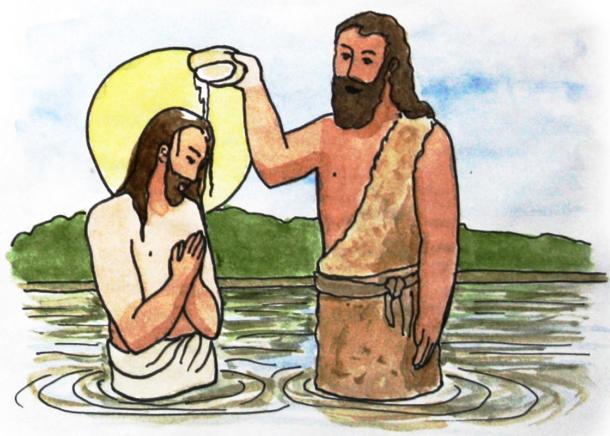

Why do you think that Jesus got baptized, since He didn't have original sin or actual sins? Jesus didn't need to get rid of any sins, but He was baptized to give us an example.
