Prayer for Vocations

Heavenly Father, in Baptism You called us by name and made us members of Your family, the Church. Help all people to know their vocation in life and to respond by living a life of holiness. For Your greater glory and for the service of Your people, raise up dedicated and generous men who will serve as priests for the Church of Hexham and Newcastle. Send Your Spirit to guide and strengthen our communities, our seminarians and all who are discerning their vocation. Amen.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;

you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the most high, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.
Amen, Amen, Amen.

This Sunday's Readings

2ND SUNDAY OF THE YEAR

First reading: Isaiah 49:3, 5-6

'I will make you as a light for the nations, that my salvation may reach to the end of the earth.'

The Lord said to me, 'You are my servant, Israel, in whom I will be glorified.'

And now the Lord says,
he who formed me from the womb to be his servant,
to bring Jacob back to him,
and that Israel might be gathered to him —
for I am honoured in the eyes of the Lord, and my God has become my strength —
he says:
'It is too light a thing that you should be my servant
to raise up the tribes of Jacob and to bring back the preserved of Israel;
I will make you as a light for the nations,
that my salvation may reach to the end of the earth.'

Response: Behold, I have come, Lord, to do your will.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 1:1-3

'Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.'

Paul, called by the will of God to be an Apostle of Christ Jesus, and our brother Sosthenes,
To the church of God that is in Corinth, to those sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints together with all those who in every place call upon the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both their Lord and ours:
Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia.
The Word became flesh and dwelt among us;
to all who did receive him,
he gave the authority to become children of God.
Alleluia.

Gospel Reading: John 1:29-34

'Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world.'

At that time: John saw Jesus coming towards him, and said, 'Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world! This is he of whom I said, "After me comes a man who ranks before me, because he was before me." I myself did not know him, but for this purpose I came baptising with water, that he might be revealed to Israel.' And John bore witness: 'I saw the Spirit descend from heaven like a dove, and it remained on him. I myself did not know him, but he who sent me to baptise with water said to me, "He on whom you see the Spirit descend and remain, this is he who baptises with the Holy Spirit." And I have seen and have borne witness that this is the Son of God.'

REFLECTION

Have you ever had the opportunity to rise early in the morning and watch the sunrise in a clear sky? The light finds all the dark corners and transforms them making them shine so that all is revealed. There is something mystical in the way light transforms the darkness.

In today's reading from Isaiah, we are called to be the light of the nations. The people of Israel believed they were chosen by God. This belief was founded on the good things that God has done for them; they were a small community living in a very violent age, but through God's help they survived and prospered. Now Isaiah is calling on them to fulfil the mission that God has given them. They must go out and speak of their God to all the nations of the world so that God's "salvation may reach to the ends of the earth".

Paul, in his time, is prepared through prayer and sacrifice to do his part in this calling. In the opening chapter of Corinthians, he sets out the task that lies before him. He sets the foundation of his mission in the prayer of the people. When we are called to speak of God's love for others, we too must place our trust in prayer.

The Gospel of John was written when the Apostle was in old age and looks back, with remarkably clear insight into the days of Jesus. John lived through the greatest century that mankind has ever known; through John, Jesus, the man, comes to life in a special way. Today we have an account of the baptism of Jesus. John the Baptist calls him "the Lamb of God". This title has great significance for the Jews for the lamb is the one who takes on a nation's sins and leads them to repentance. In other translations He is also called "the chosen one of God"; in our time we too are chosen to make God known in our world; let us pray for the gift of the spirit to descend on us also so that we too may become "a light for the nations".

Kids Corner: John the Baptist: Was He the Messiah?

Everybody thought that John the Baptist was a great preacher and prophet. Some people thought that he might even be the Messiah who would save their people. But John knew that was not his job. When Jesus came to him at the river to be baptized, John pointed at Him and told the people, "Behold, the Lamb of God!" He told the people that he was not the great one; Jesus was.

Saint John the Baptist is an example to all of us. If we are really good then our lives will show other people the way to Jesus.

John the Baptist taught the people by telling them to repent of their sins and be baptized. God wants some people to teach about Him by teaching and preaching to the people. But for most of us, the best way to teach others about God is by living a good life and loving God. If you really do your best to love God then your life will be like St. John the Baptist's and point the way to Jesus.

What is something that you can do today to lead someone to Jesus?

Answer to puzzle on front: I have seen and testified that He is the Son of God.
