The Geography Curriculum at Hamworthy Primary Schools

Directional

- Directional language
- Following directions
- Compass directions
- Describing features on maps and routes
- Instructing

Map Work

- Making maps
- Use of Atlas, globes, maps and digital resources
- Types of Maps

Location and Place

- Name and locate countries in Europe (including Russia), North and South America and Africa and Asia.
- Compare characteristics of different countries and the local area.
- To locate the position of the Equator and the lines of Latitude and Longitude.
- Name and locate the World's seven continents and five oceans and compare their characteristics.
- Name & locate the four countries of the United Kingdom, their capital cities and surrounding seas.
- Name &locate the major urban areas and counties within the UK.

Human & Physical Geography

- Natural disasters.
- The Water Cycle.
- Identifying changes over time.
- Energy
- Identify human features around the world including land use, settlements, trade and industry and compare these.
- Identify physical features around the world including seas & oceans, harbours, rivers, mountains and volcanoes and compare these.

Settlement and Land use

- Types of settlement including hamlets, villages, towns and cities.
- Rural and Urban settlements
- Services including energy, health, education, transport, business.
- Uses of settlements including farming, industries, leisure, retail, manufacturing and housing.

Weather and Climate

- Types of weather
- Weather patterns
- Causes and effects
- Regional and global variations
- Climate Zones
- Climate change

Environment & Sustainability

- Cause
- Pollution
- Global Warming
- Planning
- Fair trade
- Impact

Field Work

- Observing immediate environment and changes over time.
- Gather, record, classify, present and evaluate data.
- Taking measurements using standard units using appropriate equipment.