Year 3 Learning Journey Autumn 2 – Geography

Comparing UK Cities: London and Bath

Key Vocabulary

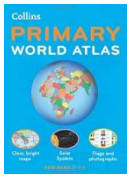

City:

A large town usually containing a cathedral or university.

Atlas:

A book of maps.

Rural:

Far away from large towns or cities, little to no houses. A village or hamlet.

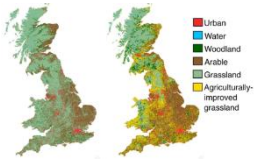

Settlement:

Places where people live and often work.

Land Use:

Describes what happens on a piece of land.

Urban:

A town or city with many houses, shops or restaurants.

Retrieval:

Use and follow simple compass directions, using directional language. Identify and explain differences of human and physical features within a location overtime. London is a city.

I know that the United Kingdom is made up of four countries. I know that each country within the United Kingdom has a capital city.	I know how to locate cities of the United Kingdom.	I know that London and Bath have similarities and differences and the land is used in different ways.
I know the features of an urban settlement.	I know the features of a rural settlement.	I can compare settlements.