Structure

We are following the structure of 'The magic Box' by Kit Wright.

We will be thinking about:

- What would you put inside your magic box?
- What will your box be made from?
- What will you do with your box?

Overview

- Free verse poems are poems that do not have to follow a set structure.
- They do not have to rhyme in a certain way or have lines of a certain length. They also do not have to look a certain way on a page.
- They often contain figurative language.
- We can use the five senses within our poems to enhance a description – smell, sound, taste, touch and sight.
- Free verse poems often tell a story, describe a subject/object, or explain an emotion.

Metaphor

She is a ray of sunshine.

I smell a rat

He is the light of my life.

A rollercoaster of emotions. Alliteration

Cute as a kitten.

Non-negotiables for this piece of work

I have carefully chosen my:

- Nouns (things): rather than 'tree', be more exact, e.g. 'oak' or 'willow'.
- Adjectives (describing words): rather than 'big' use 'vast or 'sprawling'.
- Verbs (actions): rather than 'runs', use 'sprints' or 'staggers'.

Punctuation Checklist

End sentences with a
