At GCSE we follow the AQA RE Syllabus A. paper 1 Christianity and Sikhism , beliefs and practices. Paper 2 : Relationships and families; Religion and life; Religion, peace and conflict; Religion crime and punishment.
• We start Year 11 with our last paper 2 theme. • This will build upon the crime and punishment topic we studied back in year 9. • In Year 11 we will be looking at topics like Capital Punishment in far more detail, as well as new topics.	• We will now look at out Third Paper 1 topic. • This builds upon our First GCSE topic at the start of Y10. • Now we will look at how Christian Beliefs are put in to practice.	• This is our final Topic before we begin exam revision. • This has been left to last as many of you as Sikhs will already know a lot about Sikh Practices. Non Sikhs at TKAW will have experience practices such as Vaisakhi, Divali and Gurburbs.	• You will have the opportunity to identify the areas of the course YOU would like to re visit. • Some of you y wish to use part of the time left for independent revision.	EXAM SEASON	EXAM SEASON
