

Department Intent

Our intent is that the Art curriculum:

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • creates opportunities to develop key subject knowledge, understanding and skills related to art, craft and design. • allows students to record ideas, observations and insights relevant to intentions as work progresses. • refers to how the knowledge, understanding and skills of art could be applied to future academic or career decisions. • increases confidence.
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • enables the development of ideas through investigations, demonstrating critical understanding of sources. • enables the refinement of work by exploring ideas, selecting and experimenting with appropriate media, materials, techniques and processes. • enables critical analysis and evaluation.
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • takes advantage of the practical use of media and materials • unites learning with creativity and mental health. • allows opportunities to express emotions and explore issues in a creative way. • enables personal and meaningful responses that realises intentions and demonstrates an understanding of visual language. • promotes wellbeing and resilience.