

Department Intent

Our intent is that the History curriculum:

	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• creates opportunities to develop key subject knowledge, understanding and skills related to historical key concepts.• provides an appropriate range of opportunities to interpret the requirements of specific tasks, evaluate information and communicate effectively.• refers to how the knowledge, understanding and skills of the subject of History could be applied to future academic or career decisions.
	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• presents opportunities to apply knowledge, understanding and skills to varying contexts.• enables critical analysis, interpretation and evaluation.• provides opportunities to form accurate and sustained judgements and conclusions based on sound evaluation of evidence.
	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• unites learning with cultural immersion.• promotes opportunities to appreciate and enjoy historical legacy as architectural, literary and scientific signposts to man's progress over the centuries.• To encourage students to empathise with individuals and experiences outside the normal range of personal interrelationships.