

13th May 2022

Dear All,

Autism Voice Career Workshops: A group of 6 students attended the Baking- cake decorating sessions last Wednesday, learning how to use different techniques in piping icing. Another group will start the jewellery making sessions on 16th May 2022.

Sports Day- Oval Cricket Ground Monday 9th May 2022: Both tutor groups – 13 students attended the Sports Day at the Oval which was exciting. They took part in various activities on the large field. They met with ex-students and staff. Two students worked in the coffee shop preparing the sandwiches for lunch, and delivered them to the Oval with their food trolley.

Event Tuesday May 10th: 2022, We had a small event for 6 people. A group of students catered for this event with high quality table service. The feedback about the food and service from the students was excellent.

Young Men's/ Young Women's Groups: We started our first group last week which was very successful. The whole group split into 2 groups with a mixture of year groups. The students will explore topics of interest relevant to being a young man/ woman.

College Timings: Reminder that students can arrive at college from 8:45am earliest. Please do remind the cab driver and attendant. The college day starts at 9.00am for registration with the first tutorial starting at 9:15am

Health & Safety/ Dress code: As students will be working in the Coffee Shop and kitchen, they will need to wear footwear that covers their feet- toes and heels and long trousers/ leggings. When Students are working in the Coffee Shop finger nails are to be kept short and no nail extensions are allowed. Students are reminded to bring in a spare change of clothes each day or leave it in their lockers for daily fitness sessions.

Queen's Jubilee: On the last day of half term on Friday May 27th 2022, we will have a small jubilee celebration. Staff and students can wear anything red, white or blue if they would like to. You are welcome to join us in the Coffee Shop from 1:30-2pm

I hope you have a lovely weekend.

Yours sincerely,

Catriona Guyler-Kone

Acting Principal
