

The Park College Charging and Remission Statement

Introduction

The Park College is an inclusive college offering equality of opportunity to all students attending. We aim to provide a broad and varied range of experiences for the students. Significant aspects of the training programme are community based.

Voluntary Contributions

When organising community based training the college does not invite students or their families to contribute to the cost.

Prohibition of Charges

The college does not charge for the following:

- Admission applications
- Education and training provided during college hours including any materials and equipment
- Any aspect of community based training programmes
- Transport costs for community based training and activity
- Entry for accredited courses and qualifications

Breakages

It is not college policy to request payment for any breakages or damage to college property.
