Short Stories in German by Rawlings & Richards

Eight captivating short stories, using the 1000 most frequently used German words. Science fiction, crime, history and thrillers—something for everyone!

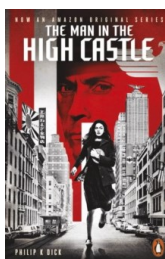

The Spy Who Came in from the Cold by John Le Carre

Spying in the shadow of the Berlin Wall for his British Masters, Alec Leamas has one final assignment to take him deep into the heart of Communist Germany. A classic espionage thriller set during the 1960's

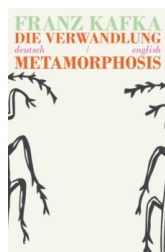

Emil und die Detektive by Erich Kästner

Written in 1929, this historically important children's book set in Berlin, now translated into over 50 languages, was the only one of Kästner's pre-1945 works to escape Nazi censorship.

The Man in the High Castle by Philip Dick

Dick's acclaimed cult novel gives us a horrifying glimpse of an alternative world - one where the Allies have lost the Second World War

Die Verwandlung/Metamorphosis by Franz Kafka

Terrifying yet comical tale of the unremarkable Samsas family whose son wakes up transformed into a monstrous insect. * Mr Robertson's top tip. It's not cheating to use parallel text!
