

Year 4 Knowledge Organiser - Storytelling through Art

Vocabulary

Key Questions

Key Artist Laura Carlin

Key Vocabulary	Definition
Illustration	To make a pattern or mark using an inked block.
Composition	The deliberate arrangement of visual elements such as shape, line, colour and texture.
Interpretation	The process of analysing elements of a piece of artwork to derive meaning, context and emotional impact.
Imagery	The use of vivid, descriptive language in order to appeal to our senses.
Graphic Novel	A book told through sequential art.
Sequenced Images	A series of photographs or images arranged in a particular order to tell a story or to evoke emotion.
Juxtapose	Placing two or more elements side by side to create an interesting effect.
line	A mark made on a surface that joins different points.
tone	The light or dark of a colour or shade of objects.

How do artists use imagery to tell a story?

What is a graphic novel?

How can I make a sequence of images to tell a story?

Key Facts
Born: 1980
Style/Period: Illustrator and ceramicist
Famous works: Illustrator for The Iron Man and The Promise
Fun Fact: She lives in London and has always loved to draw, particularly people lost in their thoughts and battles.

Work Examples

Timeline of Artists

