

Year 2 – Local History Study - Reading

Vocabulary

We live in Reading, which is in the country England.

 Architecture	The way buildings are planned and built	 Evidence	Clues that help us learn about the past
 Era	A long time in history	 Research	Finding out new things by asking questions
 Comparison	Seeing what is the same and what is different	 Locality	The area where you live or go to school
 Evidence	Clues that help us learn about the past

1785—Jane Austen (1775-1817) attended school in Reading,

1810—Kennet and Avon Canal opened to support trade.

1822—Huntley and Palmers first opened as a small bakery.

1840—First train departed from Reading to London.

1900—Huntley and Palmers became the biggest biscuit manufacturers.

