Dear Mr Wilson,

I just wanted to write to you to say what a joy it has been visiting your school over the last term. It has been wonderful to facilitate workshops across all year groups examining British democratic processes, encouraging pupils to think about the importance of engaging with politics and how democracy looks within a school setting. Your pupils showed huge amounts of character, enthusiasm and passion for their school and local community. Pupils began thinking about what it means to be a pupil representative and how they can further enrich youth voice processes within school. I am very much looking forward to continuing this work and looking at how we engage your pupils in wider council initiatives over the next academic year.

Kind regards,
