Headteacher's Note:

Science week has been such fun!

The children thoroughly enjoyed their sessions with the ladies from 'Fun Science' on Tuesday and I'm sure we now have a few mini Einsteins in the making.

Our Science fair was a great success and some of the experiments that the children came up with blew our socks off! Well done and thank you to all those who took part. Congratulations to all! The winners will be announced on Monday in assembly as you have left us with an almost impossible decision to make 😊 Please see the pictures on Facebook and the website.

It was lovely to see so many of you at our Parents Evenings last week. I hope you are happy with the school and the progress your child is making. Thank you for your feedback - we are continuously looking at ways to improve and evolve and your comments are vital in achieving this.

Thank you, as always, for your continued support.
Mrs Stinchon
