

Child exploitation parent information session

About Pace

Pace is a leading national charity supporting parents whose children are being sexually or criminally exploited.

Pace also provides training and guidance for professionals, based on 25 years of experience keeping children safe from exploitation.

These sessions are an opportunity for parents to understand the signs that a child may be being exploited, increase their confidence to respond safely and learn how to support a child who may be at risk of being criminally or sexually exploited.

There will be the opportunity to ask questions, share your concerns and connect with other parents and carers.

- Understand what child exploitation is
- Understand the signs of child exploitation
- Learn how children are groomed online
- Understand the behaviours of exploited children
