My descriptions

Sheila was putting on mum's gray, plaid coat. She had her hair up in a beautiful victory bun and had a slimfitted black and white dress. Her lips were coloured postbox red and there was a brown strip at the back of her legs.

Picture House has red velvet seats from A-Z they tickled the back of your legs when you sat on them. As the scarlet curtains swung open gracefully up to reveal the the newsreal.

A lady with the maroon-red burret and the slim, dim dress and red lipstick, like Sheila, ushered us away to the shelter and shouted at the top of her voice to let people know they could come in.

Did hear the muffled click-clack of the guns the roar that was the first time I saw a woman in a uniform and she chose when you sit down and stand up. The great uniform looked so military she was real.

The white stripes on the uniform and the letter W on his in his hat standing for women which they stand out in the dark.

I could hear the sizzle of meat and the whistling of kettles and all of the excitement I could hear also hearing shouts and groans and and the sounds and confusion of people.

I could smell the stench of meat

1	peggy was putting her mums red velvet lipstick while also putting on a big green jacket, Robert who was getting ready to go to the museum, he also knocked on peggy's door. Peggy who was going on her way to knock on Alfred's door.
2	The museum was very interesting for Robert because he was very intrested in dinosoars and there was a lot of dino bones.also there was a lot of bones like the megaladon shark mouth.
3	The WRVS man was the one that was ushering Alfred to the shelter, he had a white stripe among his metallic helmet with a W stuck on the middle of his helmet
4	I could hear the faint alarm coming from a mile a way.I couls also hear people screaming "get down" and suddenly i heard a bomb dropping at a high speed "SSSSSSssssshhhhhhhew"

Handwritten mathematical problems and solutions:

- $1 \frac{2}{3} = \frac{4}{3} + \frac{1}{3} = \frac{5}{3}$
- $1 \frac{1}{2} = \frac{2}{2} + \frac{1}{2} = \frac{3}{2}$
- $3 \frac{1}{2} = \frac{6}{2} + \frac{1}{2} = \frac{7}{2}$
- $4 \frac{2}{5} = \frac{8}{5} + \frac{2}{5} = \frac{10}{5}$
- $5 \frac{1}{2} = \frac{10}{2} + \frac{1}{2} = \frac{11}{2}$
- $6 \frac{1}{2} = \frac{12}{2} + \frac{1}{2} = \frac{13}{2}$
- $7 \frac{1}{8} = \frac{14}{8} + \frac{1}{8} = \frac{15}{8}$
- $8 \frac{3}{10} = \frac{16}{10} + \frac{3}{10} = \frac{19}{10}$
- $9 \frac{1}{3} = \frac{18}{3} + \frac{1}{3} = \frac{19}{3}$
- $10 \frac{1}{5} = \frac{20}{5} + \frac{1}{5} = \frac{21}{5}$

- an intensive or sudden military attack.
- series of bomb
- Many of those who stayed, endured bombing raids and were injured or made homeless. All had to deal with the threat of gas attack, air raid precautions (ARP), rationing, changes of school and in their daily life.
- Shelters were built. To help prevent the Germans from seeing where the towns were, a blackout was rigorously enforced after darkness.

Research of The Blitz

The Blitz, (September 7, 1940-May 11, 1941), intense bombing campaign undertaken by Nazi Germany against the United Kingdom during World War II. For eight months the Luftwaffe dropped bombs on London and other strategic sites across Britain. For eight months the Luftwaffe dropped bombs on London and other strategic sites across Britain. The intention was to destroy the country's infrastructure, kill civilians, and to force the government to sue for peace. The offensive came to be known as the Blitz, after the German word for lightning.

The Blitz [1940-1941]

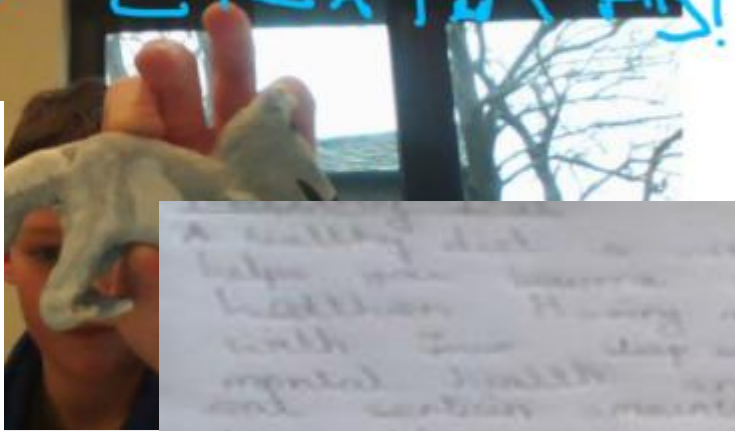

At 4:56 pm on 7th September, the air raid sirens wailed as the German Air Force, the Luftwaffe, launched a massive raid on London. Over 350 bombers flew across the channel from airfields in France and dropped 300 tonnes of bombs on the docks and the streets of the East of London. The very first attacks from the Luftwaffe (the German Air force) were called Air Raids. The heavy and frequent bombing attacks on London and other cities was known as the 'blitz'. Night after night, from 7th September 1940 till May 1941, German bombers attacked British cities, ports and industrial areas. London, was bombed everyday and night, bar one, for 11 weeks, one third of London was destroyed. On the 7th September, 1940 the German air-force changed its strategy of bombing the British air-force (battle Britain) and began to concentrate on bombing London. Nearly 2,000 people were killed or wounded in London's first night of the Blitz. During the first month, German air-force dropped 5,300 tons of explosives on London in just 26 nights (most air-raids lasted 1-2 hours!!!)

How to play among us !!!

There is a new game that all children are playing called Among us. You can have up to 10 people playing at one time. There are the crew mates; they have several tasks to complete whilst not getting killed by the imposters. They must also come together to see if they can find out who the imposters are before they get all the crew mates. I really like the bright colours and the crazy hats you can wear.

Imposters: There can be up to three imposters in a game, it is their job to get the crew mates before they are found out.

Playing this game can make you wonder who it is and also makes you think really hard.

The crew mates have multiple tasks to complete, if all the crew mates finish all the tasks the crew mates win. You can also choose your own name.

Mildred Gordon and Jack are in the picture house when Mildred says she has to leave and go to the lav.

Gordon and Jack are rushed to the air raid shelter wondering if Mildred is there but she is in the crowd and starts running. Jack is helped into a shelter by a soldier and is wondering what's going on. Meanwhile Mildred starts chasing after Jack but she is too fast even in one shoe. Gordon gets caught up in the bombing and gets slowed down. Gordon tells Mildred to slow down but she can't hear him. While Gordon is hurt he sees Mildred with a strange man, he looks very shocked. Mildred is wearing a dark overcoat with the
