Dear Parents,

This week we have celebrated Book Week. The children, and adults, looked amazing on Monday morning. We started the day with the school joining together for our book parade. Miss Burr, Church Warden, and Mrs Taylor, School Governor, who have been long associated with the school had the tricky job of selecting our prize winners. Many thanks to the TSSSA for organising and purchasing the Waterstone Book Vouchers that were given out. The children confidently introduced themselves and the book they were from. We had an impressive range of books and characters. Thank you to parents and carers for the efforts you made to support your children in taking part.

Last week I did not mention in my newsletter the huge success of our 'Dare to be Different Day'. Again, many thanks to TSSSA for proposing the idea. The children loved being able to come to school in clothes and accessories that celebrated their uniqueness. The teachers focussed the learning on celebrating our unique qualities and learning about the lives of famous people who faced difficulties and challenges in their lives, Paralympians and celebrities from the music world and television. The day also raised money for TSSSA funds.

Thank you to Miss Horth who led a very informative presentation to parents of Year 1 on phonics. This is in preparation for the Year 1 assessment at the end of the academic year.

Over the course of the week we have held our Parent's Evenings. We hope that you found seeing the children's learning and talking to the class teacher helpful in celebrating what your child is doing really well and areas in which you can support them develop.

Thank you to TSSSA who provided the Mother's Day Shop in school today. We wish all our mothers and significant women in our families a lovely weekend. If you have not donated towards the Mother's Day gift, the suggested donation is £2.50.

Revd Sally and Fr Richard would like to invite you to come along to St Stephen & St Agnes Church this Mother's Day for a special Mothering Sunday service beginning at 10am. The service will last about an hour. Sunday Club is available for very young children and there will be flowers for everyone!

TSSSA are always busy organising events for the children as well as the parents. The upcoming events this term are:-

Friday 15 March – Nearly New uniform sale on the stage in the playground at collection time

Saturday 16 March – Curry and Quiz Night at 7.30pm in St Stephens and St Agnes Church Hall

Friday 22 March – Children's disco – Reception, Year 1 and Year 2 – 4.30 to 6.00pm and Year 3 and Year 4 – 6.30 to 8.00pm (a poster giving further details is being sent home today)

Wednesday 17 April and Thursday 18 April Rags2Riches Collection
