Dear Parents

Thank you to the TSSSA for continuing to organise such varied events. This week many of you enjoyed the Pilates session run by Caroline, many thanks to her for organising and leading the workshop. I am looking forward to collecting my takeaway this evening from Ravi. Many thanks to the Singh and Clark family for organising this event. All of these events are helping the TSSSA continue to raise funds to support the school. We have ordered the new playground equipment and are now waiting to liaise with the company over the installation dates and times.

The survey results have now been collated and reviewed by the school governors. Thank you to everyone who took the time to complete and return the survey, we had a high response. The results are pleasing with 90%+ of parents agreeing or strongly agreeing with all areas apart from one. The only area where this isn't the case is the bullying statement where over a third of the responses received indicated that they were not sure of the school's response. If any parent feels that a bullying incident has not been addressed having spoken to the class teacher please do contact me through the school office.

Thank you to all those families who have responded to the Google form survey regarding after school care. I will be in touch with those people once I have spoken to Always Growing.

Last week I mentioned that we very much hoped we would be able to give a different but equally enjoyable Christmas experience for the children. In my previous newsletter I informed you of the arrangements for Christingle. The staff have now agreed the arrangements for the Nativity. Each class will be learning the actions for a song which will be related to part of the Nativity story. Year 1 will be building up the Nativity tableau and Year 4 will tell the story through Bible readings. We hope to be using our playground stage as the stable location, weather dependent. I have invited the filming company that recently recorded the tour of the school and the event will be available to purchase.

I have added the date for the Christmas Lunch below. There will be more details to follow but we would like to make this a special day. Children will be able to come in Christmas clothes and teachers will be organising a range of fun activities throughout the day.

Kind regards,

Louise Lovegrove
