Dear Parents,

This week the Reception children have been learning about the celebrations around the Chinese New Year. Yesterday they went to The Hong Kong Restaurant to experience some Chinese food. Despite the weather on the walk, the children thoroughly enjoyed tasting the food. The restaurant provided a very generous buffet for them. Please check out the news item on the website.

This week I sent out some information regarding a holiday camp running at Upton House School over the half term holiday. We also sent out a link to see if parents would want to support a similar camp here, run over part of the Easter holiday. I am pleased to say that the response has been very positive. If you haven't already responded to the survey and would like to, the link and flyer will be sent out again directly to parents during the course of today.

Last week our new Eco Council confidently talked about their action plan in a special assembly on Wednesday. One of their aims is to help the school reduce its energy consumption. To help us do this the Eco Council launched their poster competition. Posters encouraging our school community to switch lights and computer monitors off as well as close doors to keep the heat in will be gladly received. If your child would like to enter please make sure they bring their poster back to school next week and hand it in to Mrs Brech. The closing date is Friday 31 January. Full details can be found on the attached flyer.

At the end of next week we will be introducing a new Blog. The Blog is called, Peek of the Week and will be published weekly. Each year group, beginning with our Reception Class will be sharing their recent learning. Please take a look on the homepage of our website to see more next week.

Family Worship in on Thursday 30 January. Parents and friends of the school are warmly invited to attend. I look forward to seeing many of you there.

Finally, attached is a flyer sent by the RBWM regarding free online webinars for parents and carers run by the Police Cyber Protect Teams.

Kind regards,
