

This week in Year 1

Monday 17th June 2024

English:

This week we will starting to look at poetry.

We will be focusing on poems that have adjectives in them and making sure we can identify adjectives in a poem.

We will be writing our own senses seaside poems next week.

Phonics:

This week we will be revising the sounds:

oa, oe, ou, ow

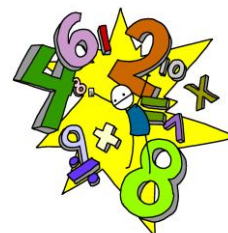

Words to focus on: the, said, of, house, our, one, once

Phonics
ee ur ow wh y au

Maths:

This week we are going to be starting our fraction topic. We will be starting off by recognising half of an object or shape. We will the be finding half of a shape/object ourselves, making sure we know that half means one of two equal parts.

We will then be recognising half of a quantity

Homework:

Please read daily with your child. They are able to change their coloured book each day.

Monster phonic books get changed each Monday. Please make sure monster phonic books are kept in school bags so we can change them.

Homework will come home on a Friday and needs to be handed in the following Wednesday.

Your child will be tested on their weekly spellings every Friday. Spellings for the next half term will be coming home.

Please support your child learning their star spellings for this half term.

Action Points:

★Swimming has now finished. PE will be on a Wednesday afternoon and we will playing some ball games and working on our multiskills.

★Please make sure your child's reading books and diary is in their bag each day. Monster phonic books are changed every Monday and your child can choose from their coloured basket daily.

★ As part of our DT topic we will be building our own lighthouses on Thursday (20th June) Please make sure your child comes into school on Thursday with their bag of junk modelling materials.

★ Sports Day is on Monday (17th) You will need to bring your child to Stovell field at 8.45am in their PE kit and a coloured t-shirt of the house they are in. They do not need a school bag that day but will need a water bottle and snack.
