

This week in Year 2

Monday 11th December 2023

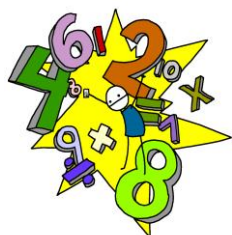

English:

The children will continue looking at traditional story tales. We will be retelling stories and the children will be creating their own traditional tale based around the 'Little Red Riding Hood' story.

Phonics:

This week will be exploring the 'er' sound spelt with a w-or. For example – worm and worth. We will also be recapping our learning from over the term.

Maths:

This week we will be looking at subtraction. Subtracting across 10, subtracting from 10 and subtracting 1 digit numbers from a 2 digit number.

Homework:

This is sent home on Friday and needs to be returned to school by Tuesday please.

There will not no homework this week!!

Please do continue to read daily over the Christmas holidays.

If you would like to share your news about Christmas, please do feel free to write about it and bring it into school in the New Year. Don't forget your capital letters, finger spaces and full stops.
