Class News Monday 4th October 2021

Year 4

Maths – In Maths we have started addition and subtraction. We are focussing on the language of subtraction and the methods available to us. We will move from mental maths, to expanded methods before looking at the standard written methods for both subtraction and addition.

English – This week we will start our persuasive writing module. Within this module we will look at powerful verbs and adverbs.

Spellings:

- Here
- Hear
- Heel
- Heal
- He'll
- Knot
- Not
- Often
- Opposite
- Ordinary

Foundation – In Geography we will locate mountains in the UK, continuing our map work. In Science the children have been planning an experiment with melting ice hands. This week they will carry out their experiments with a focus on scientific language, fair testing and scientific recording. In art we will be looking at Lowry's portraits. Using chalk, pastel, paint and pencil; the children will experiment with different techniques for producing a self-portrait.

Homework

Homework goes home each Friday and should be returned by Wednesday the following week. The reading books and logs should be returned to school on Wednesday if your child is ready to change the books. Books will go home on Thursday. Spellings are tested on Friday and we do our best to get them marked and returned to the children on Friday.

Finally

The children will all take part in a cross country event on Thursday afternoon, during the school day. Could the children bring suitable trainers to school for this event please, if they have them. Unfortunately, we cannot invite parents to this event but I will take pictures and share them with you in a BLOG.
