Architecture: Festival of the Future
14th & 15th of March

Open to Year All Students

The Festival of the Future invites you to explore, create, and imagine your future in the built environment. Bringing together 20+ partners over two days to inspire the next generation of city makers through a creative and practical programme for those from all backgrounds.

Children, young people, and adults can pick from workshops on AI in architecture, talks on preparing for post study and industry debates on Friday, to carpentry workshops, group design tasks, and family storytelling on Saturday.

Careers, funding, and work experience support providers will also host events to help you explore different routes to becoming an architect, whether choosing your GCSE's, preparing for university with A-levels or BTECs, or getting ready to graduate.

Plus, there are events for those interested in how you can engage with future generations wanting to work in the built environment.
