

Yr7/8 Onion Domes Reading homework.

This strange name is given to a type of building that has a dome at the top of it. This is traditional in Russian architecture, used on important buildings. One famous Russian building is St Basil's Cathedral.

The onion dome, is a dome whose shape resembles an onion!

We can see domes on building both here in England and around the world. Use a search engine and look at the images ready for next lesson!

Yr7/8 Onion Domes Reading homework.

This strange name is given to a type of building that has a dome at the top of it. This is traditional in Russian architecture, used on important buildings. One famous Russian building is St Basil's Cathedral.

The onion dome, is a dome whose shape resembles an onion!

We can see domes on building both here in England and around the world. Use a search engine and look at the images ready for next lesson!

Yr7/8 Onion Domes Reading homework.

This strange name is given to a type of building that has a dome at the top of it. This is traditional in Russian architecture, used on important buildings. One famous Russian building is St Basil's Cathedral.

The onion dome, is a dome whose shape resembles an onion!

We can see domes on building both here in England and around the world. Use a search engine and look at the images ready for next lesson!