

	Maths	English	Science and Art	History	Geography
WC 30/3/20	Non-standard measurement: You are going to measure objects in your home using other objects. Eg. How many pencils long is your bed? How many shoes long is your bedroom? Which do you predict will be longer, the kitchen or the bathroom? Measure and check. Which do you predict will be longer, the sofa or your bed? Measure and check. RM Easimaths 30 mins x 5	Lexia - 30 mins x 5 Each day, look out of a different window in your home and describe the setting using your senses. Try and use as many as you can:  Noticing - What do you notice?  Checking - What can you hear?  Imagining - What are you imagining?  Feeling - How does it make you feel?  Action - What is happening?  Asking - What would you like to ask?  Touching - What does it feel like?  Tasting - How does it taste?  Smelling - What can you smell?	Project: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Can you see trees and plants outside of your house? If not, use photos. Sketch a deciduous tree (leaves fall off) and sketch an evergreen tree (leaves all year round) Label your sketches. Can you shade where the leaves are darker? Press harder with your pencil to make the leaves darker and press lightly with your pencil to make the the leaves lighter. Can you explain what the differences are between deciduous and evergreen trees?	Research the first ever train. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> When was it invented? What did it look like? Who invented it? How did it move? How was it different to trains today? Design a poster to share your research. If you can, email a photograph of your poster to your teacher: yr1teacher@unity.fcat.org.uk	Flags games Guess the country in the UK game Can you find out interesting facts about Scotland? What is Scotland famous for? Can you make a holiday leaflet, persuading people to go on holiday to Scotland? Use adjectives (describing words)