

Year 3: Fantastically Great Women who Changed the World

Subject Specific Vocabulary		Interesting books	Sticky knowledge
Inspiration	Someone or something that gives feelings of hope and encouragement.		Rosa Parks refused to give her seat up on the bus, which led to a boycott and efforts to end racial segregation of public facilities.
Equal Rights	The concept that every person should be treated equally.		Amelia Earhart wanted to be the first solo women to fly across the Atlantic Ocean.
Ambition	A strong desire to do or achieve something.		Key questions <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What are equal rights? • Why is it important that we recognise significant contributions to society from women? • How have some women made significant contributions to society either nationally or globally? • Are women still advocating for equal rights? Why? How? 	Coco Chanel was a famous fashion designer. She designed clothes which were very non-traditional for the time period.
Resilience	The capacity to recover quickly from difficulties.			Gertrude Ederle was the first woman to swim the English Channel, despite suffering hearing loss early in her life.
Cultural Differences	Beliefs, behaviours, languages, practices and expressions considered unique to members of a specific ethnicity, race or national origin.	Emmeline Pankhurst was the organiser of the suffragette movement and an activist for women's right to vote.
Persistence	Continuing a course of action regardless of difficulties faced.	Malala Yousafzai is an activist for female education, mainly in Northwest Pakistan where girls were at times banned from attending school.		