

Friday 20th June 2025

Dear Parents/Carers,

A concise briefing on this humid Friday with four weeks of the academic year 2024/25 ahead of us. Our Year 11s left us this week in the highest of spirits! They helpfully donated uniform items, returned iPads and picked up their leaver's hoodies. We are all going to have a super time at Prom next Thursday evening. Years 7 to 10 have made excellent starts to the End of Year Exams. Keep the revision going over the weekend all.

Next week there will be several letters coming out to you. Please keep an eye out for the following three; Sports Day information letter, an Arbor Payments guide and a final Trips Day consent letter. New arrivals are another theme of next week. On Monday evening, we have a Year 6-Year 7 New Intake Parent Information briefing and then on Wednesday all of next year's Year 7s have a full day of lessons and activities. Our current students and staff are all very excited to welcome them. We, also, have several new members of staff starting with us in September and they have their Induction Day on Monday.

Our Student Prefect Team have continued their preparations for next year today by completing restorative practice training. Our partners at the Local Authority have led the sessions today and Student Leaders have found them most useful. I mentioned our Mental Health Support Team coffee morning in last week's video. Just to recap, it will be held on 4th July from 9.30am to 10.30am and will allow for informal Q&A and for the distribution of resources, all centred on supporting any of our young people toward good mental health.

Finally, can I just re-highlight the earlier point about uniform donations. If Year 11 parents, or anyone else, has uniform that is no longer required, could they please drop it into us on reception. It is extremely helpful in replenishing our uniform bank.

Thank you all and enjoy your weekends!
