

Meet our brilliant author and illustrator...

Our final author of the year is Bethan Woollvin. She is the eldest in a family of ten children. She graduated from Anglia Ruskin University with a First Class Degree in Illustration in 2015 and now lives in Sheffield. She loves to have a strong female main character in her books.

How do brilliant writers?

We will be introducing children to this vocabulary.

We will be exploring what different words mean and how they can be used.

growled	fooled
shortcut	Little Red
spare nightdress	Grandma
peeped	climbed
disguised	unlucky

In our writing, we will be looking at...

We will be using conjunctions to extend sentence

We will be using traditional story language

We will be using adjectives to describe nouns

Our narrative

Little Red

We will be writing a sequel story for Little Red. We will think about what could happen next. We will use:

- interesting story language
- and, because and but
- accurate punctuation
- suffixes

in our writing.

Finally, we will edit, revise and correct our writing.

Our expectations for writing at the end of Year One:

Pupils should:

- spell words containing each of the 40+ phonemes already taught
- spell common exception words
- spell the days of the week
- name the letters of the alphabet in order
- use letter names to distinguish between alternative spellings of the same sound
- add prefixes and suffixes
- use the spelling rule for adding -s or -es as the plural marker for nouns and the third person singular marker for verbs
- use the prefix un-
- use -ing, -ed, -er and -est where no change is needed in the spelling of root words [for example, helping, helped, helper, eating, quickest]
- form lower-case and capital letters in the correct direction, starting and finishing in the right place
- leave spaces between words
- join words and clauses using 'and', 'because', 'but'
- punctuate sentences using a capital letter and a full stop and begin to use question marks and exclamation marks
- use a capital letter for names of people, places, the days of the week, and the personal pronoun 'I'

This half term we will recap all of the Year One common exception words
