

Vocabulary I need to know

Politics (polis)	The activities associated with the governance of a country
Democracy	A system of government where the public elect a person to represent them in the running of their country
Nation	A group of people united by a common history and inhabiting the same country
Agora	A public open meeting space in Ancient Greece
Tactics	A careful plan of how to win a battle at war
Ostracism	Banish from a city (after a vote)
Tragedy	Serious play about a sad, dramatic event
Legacy	The objects or idea left behind after someone has gone
Debate	Argue about a subject in public, ending with a vote

Things I already know before I start the journey

Egypt was another successful civilisation that existed before and alongside the AG and also utilised slavery to build their civilisation

Romans were also another successful civilisation that left a lasting legacy in Britain. They also had a sense of National pride like the Greeks (Athenians), enjoyed public entertainment and boasted a great militia.

Things I need to know by the end of the journey

- The Greek landscape had a large impact on their way of life
- If there is any truth behind the famous myth legend; Theseus and the Minotaur
- What daily life would have been like in an Agora in Athens
- How the Athenian Army earned their great reputation thanks to the battle tactics of Miltiades, after they defeated the Persians
- Learn about the legendary Marathon run and why the story may have been embellished
- Learn why Perciles argued the importance of the rebuilding of Partheon after the Persian wars
- Learn how Greek democracy worked and the lasting legacy this has on our modern day politics, as well as learning about the darker side of politics and what it meant to be politically ostracised.
- Learn about the difference between the Greeks; comparing the Athenians and the Spartans
- Learn about Greek theatre, the concept of tragedies and how to research this independently
- Know that the Olympics originated in Ancient Greek times (PE Lesson)
- Know that Athens was the hub of political, social and cultural development in Ancient Greece.
- Know the Greeks have left a lasting legacy of; politics, architecture, science, technology, art, literature and knowledge
- Learn about some famous Greek thinkers and their influence today
- Combine their overall learning to evaluate and decide on the greatest achievements of the Ancient Greeks

LO: To know when the Ancient Greeks existed

LO: Explore the historical truth behind a Greek myth

LO: Know what daily life was like in Ancient Greece

LO: To know the cause of a great historic event

LO: To compare different accounts of a historical event

LO: Know how to take part in a debate

LO: To know how the landscape impacted Ancient Greek life

To know when the Greeks existed and how their landscape impacted their way of life.

Explore the if there is any truth behind the legend of Theseus and the Minotaur

To know about life in an Agora and what this tells us about Ancient Greek life.

Learn how the Athenian army defeated the Persians at the Battle of Marathon and the impact this had on Athens.

Know how to evaluate contrasting interpretations of the legendary Marathon run.

Know how debate arguments for and against the rebuilding of the Parthenon after the Persian wars.

LO: To know how Greek democracy worked

LO: To compare the lives of different groups of people of the past

LO: Know how to ask and answer questions about a time period using suitable resources (ICT)

LO: To know how the Greeks have influenced society today

LO: To learn about Great Greek thinkers

LO: To evaluate the key achievements of the Greeks

Know about the key features of Greek democracy and how they protected it through Ostracon.

Know how life in Ancient Greece varied by comparing life as a Spartan against an Athenian

Know about Greek theatre by researching the truth behind statements using reliable websites

Learn about the legacy of the Greeks that impact our lives today.

Learn about some famous Greek thinkers.

Decide on the key achievement's of the Greeks by combining knowledge gained throughout the unit.