

Dear Parents and Carers...
Have a lovely (long) week-
end,
From us all at UPS

Lunch time update

Things seem to be going well on our KS2 lunchtime trial. We appreciate the feedback so far and some common themes are coming out which we would expect! We'll be gauging the thoughts and feelings of our children next week and keep you posted!

BEING MORE...INSPIRATION!

It is always inspirational to see so many avid (and not so avid) runners showing such resilience in running the Manchester Marathon, and last week was no different. What is just as great is seeing supporters urging their loved ones on (and those they don't even know!). It was lovely to hear about Harry and Joseph spending so much of their time doing just that, giving out water and jelly babies to those taking part. Well done boys—great being more! (And very well done to dad, and everyone else in our school community who ran too, of course!).

CLASSROOM ACTION

This week we've been...looking at how technology (and computers) have changed over time; hooking ourselves in to our new English unit; getting cracking with our first trumpet lessons; learning our quarter-pasts, half-pasts and quarter-to's; adding and subtracting amounts of money; beginning to learn about the digestive system, our teeth and their functions; solving addition and subtraction problems; creating digital paintings; being teacher experts in Geography; labelling flowers in Science and making models; learning the ukelele..and much more!

29.4.25- We had our hook lesson based on the poem 'The Sound Collector.' We went to different areas of the school to listen what sounds we could hear.

I just wanted to share one of our new campaigns and wondered if you could share the below with your networks and get involved with the campaign on social media!

CHILDREN'S SLEEP AWARENESS MONTH IS HERE!

We are delighted to launch this campaign putting the spotlight on children's sleep because... what an importance subject it is! Did you know that up to 50% of children struggle with sleep at some point, which rises to 80% where there is a diagnosis of SEND?

Poor sleep can lead to cranky mornings, trouble focusing in school, and even long-term health challenges - not to mention tired, stressed-out parents. That's why we're dedicating an entire month to raising awareness about the importance of sleep for children.

Whether you're navigating toddler wake ups, battling bedtimes, or convincing your teen to switch off at night, we're here to help!

What's coming in February:

Practical tips for better sleep routines.

Free weekly webinars with our experts to tackle sleep challenges.

Resources, info and challenges.

We want to work together with you to make bedtime battles a thing of the past. Follow us for updates, tips, and resources, and get ready to sleep better this February! Download the supporter's pack here: <https://thesleepcharity.org.uk/get-involved/awareness-events/>

Guide to What Support is on offer in Trafford

Life is pretty complex at the moment and we all need a bit of help now and again. Take a look at the guide at the link below which offers information on what is out there in Trafford to support you and your children...<https://www.urmstonprimary.com/parents/resources-for-parents>

FRAGILE MINDS: RETHINKING SMARTPHONES AND THE DEVELOPING BRAIN

While watching my children play in the snow last week, I saw my son trying to force a carrot into the frozen head of his snowman, and it struck me, our brains are a lot like that. Have you tried learning a new skill as an adult? It's slow and frustrating, like forcing a vegetable into ice. But children learn with such ease because their brains are like soft, fresh snow. Malleable and ready to form new pathways.

The beauty of the snow gave us all a reason to be present-to sledge, build, and simply appreciate. It was a pull to get outside, to connect with the world around us. Sadly, though, the virtual world is increasingly becoming a stronger temptation than real, active play. When we allow children unrestricted access to the internet, social media, or inappropriate games, we risk shaping their neural pathways in ways that can become fixed. The instant gratification of scrolling through endless videos conditions their brains to prioritise quick rewards over deeper engagement. Modern childhood is losing the time and space for imagination and exploration, replaced by screens that steal their focus and limit their potential. By setting boundaries now, we allow their minds to grow in ways that foster creativity, resilience, and meaningful connections. Just as snowflakes are unique, so too are our children's developing minds. We aren't powerless in this journey. By making thoughtful choices and sticking together, we can help shape a future where our children thrive.

Online relationship support for parents

Parents in this area can now access THREE ONLINE COURSES from the relationship experts at OnePlusOne. Learn to cope with stress and communicate better, wherever you are in your parenting journey.

FOR ALL
PARENTS

Arguing better

Disagreements are a normal part of life. How you approach them can make all the difference to you, your partner, and your children. You will learn:

- How to recognise stress and how it can affect you.
- How to support each other through difficult times.
- What causes arguments and how to stop them.

FOR NEW

Me, You and Baby Too

Learn how to navigate the changes that happen in a relationship when a baby arrives, including:

- How you and your partner can support each other.
- How to talk to bring up difficult topics.
- How arguments start, and how to stop them.

FOR SEPARATING

Getting it right for children

When parents are separating or separated, children can often get caught in the middle. Learn how to manage conflict to minimise the impact it has on your children, as well as:

- How to stop a discussion from turning into an argument.
- How to stay calm and listen as well as talk.
- Skills for finding solutions and making compromises.

To access the courses, you will need a smartphone, tablet, or computer, and a good internet connection. They are all FREE to use, so you'll just need to select your local authority area and create an account with a username and password.
