Charging and Remissions Policy

Introduction

The 1996 Education Act requires all schools to have a policy on charging and remissions for school activities. The policy identifies activities for which

- charges will not be made
- charges will be made
- charges may be waived

In general, no charge can be made for admitting pupils to maintained schools. Where education is provided wholly or mainly during school hours, it should be free.

The school day is defined as 8:55 am - 3:30 pm. The midday break does not form part of the school day. The Headteacher will ensure that staff are familiar with and correctly apply the policy. The Governors will review the policy annually.

Policy Statement

Ursuline Catholic Primary School believes that all our pupils should have an equal opportunity to benefit from school activities and visits (curricular and extra curricular) independent of their parents' financial means. This policy describes how we will do our best to ensure a good range of visits and activities is offered and, at the same time, try to minimise the financial barriers which may prevent some pupils taking full advantage of the opportunities.

No Charges will be made for

- education provided during school hours (including the supply of any materials, books, instruments or other equipment);
- education provided outside school hours if it is part of the National Curriculum or part of a syllabus for a prescribed public examination that the pupil is being prepared for at the school, or part of religious education;
- tuition for pupils learning to play musical instruments if the tuition is required as part of the National Curriculum, or part of a syllabus for a prescribed public examination that the pupil is being prepared for at the school, or part of religious education;
- entry for a prescribed public examination, if the pupil has been prepared for it at the school; and
- examination re-sit(s) if the pupil is being prepared for the re-sit(s) at the school

- education on a school trip that takes place during school hours
- supply teachers covering for other teachers accompanying pupils on a residential trip
- transport in connection with an educational visit

Voluntary contributions

Separately from the matter of charging, the school may ask parents for a voluntary contribution towards the cost of:

- any activity that takes place during school hours
- school trips
- school equipment
- school funds generally

However, if the activity cannot be funded without voluntary contributions, the head teacher should make this clear to parents at the outset. The governing body or head teacher must also make it clear to parents that there is no obligation to make any contribution. The contribution must be genuinely voluntary, though, and the pupils of parents who are unable or unwilling to contribute may not be discriminated against. Where there are not enough voluntary contributions to make the activity possible, and there is no way to make up the shortfall, then it must be cancelled.

Charges will be made for

Residential trips

We will charge for the cost of board and lodging during residential school trips. This cost must not exceed the actual cost of the provision.

When a school informs parents about a forthcoming visit, they should make it clear that parents who can prove they are in receipt of the following benefits will be exempt from paying the cost of board and lodging:

- Income Support
- Income-based Jobseeker's Allowance
- support under part VI of the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999
- Child Tax Credit, provided the parent is not entitled to Working Tax Credit and their annual income does not exceed £16 040
- Guaranteed State Pension Credit.
- an income related employment and support allowance that was introduced on 27 October 2008.

Non residential trips

Charges will be made for Non residential activities (other than listed above) which takes place outside of school hours but only if the majority of the time spent on that activity takes place outside school hours (time spent on travel counts in this calculation if the travel itself occurs during school hours). Conversely if the bigger proportion of the time falls within normal school hours no charge will be made
