

WHAT'S THE PROBLEM?

Some stories are about characters who find themselves in difficult situations. Sometimes they have caused the problems, and sometimes bad things happen to them. Read through the story. Discuss your ideas with your friends and make notes in the boxes.

Story title and author:

Character's name:

What has caused the problem?

What do you think the character should do?

What might happen to affect the character's decision?

