

"Goodness me!" snorted Hattie the Hedgehog. "It's half past September already. I haven't got time to play! I must finish my hibernation checklist."

As the leaves grew crispier, and the air colder, Hattie worked hard to prepare her winter home.

She snuggled tightly into her cosy and comfortable hedge, just in time for the Big Sleep.

Group A Monday lesson text example