

Can I order and retell the beginning of a story?

All children must:

Task 1: Cut out the pictures and put them in order. Can you retell the story verbally to your adult? Remember to use full sentences and make sure they make sense.

Most children should:

Task 2: Stick them on some paper and write your sentences to retell the story in your own words. Use the pictures to help you. Try to write one sentence for each picture.

Sentence openers

Grace is	She likes	She plays
She lives	Sometimes she	She loves

Challenge: Continue to the story yourself. What else has happened? What do you think will happen next?
