

Dear Papa,

I hope you are well. I am writing to tell you all about an exciting competition that school are running and that I am hoping to win!

Last week I saw a poster in school which said 'Princess Competition' and I knew right away that it was the competition for me. Can you imagine how excited I have been? You know how much I love to read stories and stories with princesses in are my absolute favourite. A girl in my class called Natalie says she is going to win but I think I have a good chance too. I have decided I will read all my favourite princess stories again like Cinderella, The Princess and the Pea and Snow White so I can remind myself what princesses are really like. Then I will ask Ma to help me make the best princess outfit EVER so I can be the best princess I can be. The outfit will probably be pink with a diamond tiara because that is what real princesses wear... I think it is anyway. I need to get reading and find out!

I will write to you soon to tell you how things went. Wish me luck!

Love from,

Grace xx
