

To Joe,

I have found out a cool fact some foods are superheroes! My mum says that tomatoes and sweet potatoes are so good for us that eating them will turn us into heroes too! If I hurt my toe, my mum goes out to the shops to stock up.

I think if I keep eating them, one day I will beat my granddad at dominoes! My granddad says that it will fill him with woe!

See you soon.

From,

Floe x

Phase 5: Tricky Word Spotter Story

Rob the Robot at the Beach

Rob the Robot went to the beach.

He sat on the sand.

There were lots of people on the beach.

He saw Mr and Mrs Smith and their children. "Hello!" he called.

Rob the Robot wanted to make a sandcastle.

He asked Mr and Mrs Smith if he could borrow their bucket and spade.

Rob made a huge sandcastle.

He looked for a shell to put on the top.

He found a little shiny shell.

The shell ran along the sand!

"Come back!" called Rob.

He looked inside the shell.

There was a crab inside!

"Oh!" said Rob. "Come and see my sandcastle."

The crab asked if he could play in the sandcastle.

Rob the Robot had fun playing with the crab in the sandcastle.

What happened in the story?

Can you find and underline these tricky words in the story?

oh Mrs people their called Mr looked asked could

Now practice writing the tricky words out or use some of these words in sentences.

Dear Paul,

I wanted to remind you that tomorrow is the launch of the book 'The Haunted House', by the author Alex Whiteoak.

He told me that he has been working on the book since August. It took him such a long time because he was exhausted after his last book tour.

At the launch, since it is autumn time, we went for an orange, red and brown theme. There will be drinks, hot dogs and burgers with sauce. After the food, Alex will read a section from the book.

I really hope that the audience give Alex a huge applause. Maybe some people might want his autograph too!

Looking forward to seeing you,

Lauren
