Dear Parents/Carers

We hope that you have managed to log into google classroom without any problems.

I am writing to advise you of the new virtual learning timetable which will begin 15/6/20. The timetable is attached. Please encourage and support your child to log into google classroom just before the lesson.

I have attached a how to guide for joining the live lessons and a remote learning home agreement to be signed and returned as soon as possible.

Yours sincerely

Miss Rosie Honeysett
Food Technology Teacher
Google Classroom Coordinator

Remote Policy Agreement

Pupils and Parents are responsible for:

I will ensure that my child is available to learn remotely at the times allocated, and that the schoolwork set is completed to the best of my child's ability

I will report any technical issues to the school as soon as possible

I will ensure that my child uses the equipment and technology used for remote learning as intended.

It is pupil's responsibility to seek help or support from their teachers and complete work to the deadline set.
