

6th September 2023

Dear Parent/Carer,

Thank you for your support in maintaining our standards and expectations. It is important that we continue with the same drive in this academic year 2023/2024. As a parent or carer, you are your child's first and most important teacher.

Now that they are back into the routine of school, we need to reinforce the right behaviours in our pupils, so that they can be successful. Both parents and teachers want the same thing for our children the best possible education. When we all work together, we make a strong team.

Here are some ideas for helping the school do a better job:

- See that your child attends school regularly.
- Support the school in its efforts to maintain good discipline. Try to establish clear, consistent rules for behaviour at home. This helps pupils adjust to specific rules for the classroom or school.
- Be aware of what your child is learning in school.
- Let the staff know if your child has any problems outside of school that might affect his or her schoolwork.
- If you have any concerns or questions do share them with us.

The conduct we want in all our pupils:

- To arrive in school and to all lessons on time and in full uniform, worn correctly.
- Always respond positively to instructions from members of staff.
- Must be mindful to always give respect to others as you would want to receive it.
- Must not do, or say anything that makes others feel unsafe or threatened.
- Must be equipped and ready to learn.
- Must work to the best of their ability and must not distract themselves or others.
- Must develop their personal resilience by:
 - Accepting that they will make mistakes and that things won't always go their way.
 - Co-operating and compromising so as to seek other solutions to the situations or problems.
- Always keep trying and never give up.
- Always be prepared to accept responsibility for their choices, apologise and be reconciled.

If you have any question, please do not hesitate to contact me or on the other senior leaders.

Thank you for your continued support!

Yours sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, consisting of several vertical strokes followed by a horizontal line that curves to the right.

Mr E Muca (Landi)
Headteacher