

Personal Development

Personal Development Themes
Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 1	Spring 2	Summer 1	Summer 2
- Spiritual, moral, social and cultural development	- Healthy living - British Values	- Equality and diversity	- Careers guidance	- Citizenship	- Preparation for next stage

Subject	Autumn 1	Autumn 2	Spring 1	Spring 2	Summer 1	Summer 2
Sport Science Year 9	Students will learn how sports bodies help their athletes when religious calendars clash with sporting events.	Healthy living Students will create a diet plan, which will teach them values about healthy eating. British Values Students will learn about hooliganism and the role of the British rule of law.	Students will debate whether trans-females should participate in female sporting competitions.	Students will research jobs linked to the sports sector.	Students will organise a sporting event for the school.	Talk from simon at combat academy.
Sport Science Year 10	Students will investigate how sports can help social cohesion.	Healthy living Students will create a diet plan, which will teach them values about healthy eating. British values- Students will look at the barriers stopping people participating in sports in relation to the respect and tolerance British value.	Students will examine the barriers for LGBT+ people participating in sport and create posters for the rainbow laces campaign.	Students will research jobs linked to the sports sector.	Students will organise a sporting event for the school.	Students will look at how this qualification can help them gain apprenticeships jobs or FE.
Year 11 Sport Science	Students will cover key moments in the Olympics, which have impacted cultural development.	Healthy living Students will create a diet plan, which will teach them values about healthy eating. British values- Students will examine the impact of sporting events on national pride and unity.	Students make posters relating to the kick it out campaign and evaluate its impact on racism in sport.	Students will research jobs linked to the sports sector.	Students will look at how coaching sports can impact on range of social groups.	Students will look at how this qualification can help them gain apprenticeships jobs or FE.