

Examples of the expected level in writing at Year 6:

"Yeah yeah whatever! Anyways the plan is when Mrs. Elliotte comes to geed us, you have to act dead," bellowed Prunella.

Dwayne replied, "No way! I'm ^{I am} not doing that, ~~the~~ ^{GM} the next Dwayne Johnson ~~it~~ doesn't work like that! My plan is better."

"Please! You've got to be kidding you are not half as good as mine. Now if you want to escape listen to me!" she hissed.

"Fine!" grumped Dwayne.

Little did Dwayne know, Prunella his evil friend was only using him as an escape! She didn't actually like him, he was too dumb and silly to be Prunella's friend.

Prunella continued, "As I was saying, when she checks up on you, I'll start running around to capture attention. After, I'll escape then its up to you to follow after me!" However, those guards are one of the best! We have to be carefull, slick and sly! It might be a bit hard but we can do it!"

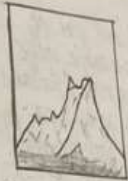

"Well okay im in," muttered Dwayne while munching on the carrot sticks. "There's nothing to loose! What can go wrong, right...?"

My guide for Nepal.

Nepal is a country of a plethora of mountain ranges. The most known is the Himalayas, home for MT. Everest. However, Nepal is also known for its culture, temple, food and people. Nepal is a pretty beauty in the world.

What to do

In Nepal, you can climb panoramic valleys and summits. Afterwards you could go in a motorized boat and paddle into the cenuleap lake. Lakes are usually surrounded by lush greenery. If you want to go high up, but do not want to trek, you can go in a cable car. Doing so, you can explore easily. You might get nervous from heights.

Where is Nepal?

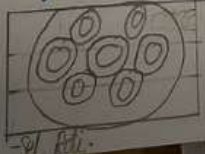

Nepal is a country in Asia. It occupies an area of from 26° 20' to 30° 10' north latitude and 80° 15' to 88° 19' east longitude. It shares the northern border with the Tibetan region of Peoples Republic of China (PRC). It shares the eastern, southern and western border of India. Did you know Nepal's population is made up of 80% Indians and 9% Buddhist?

What can you eat in Nepal?

Rice and dal is a sauce with lentils in it. You can try Momos, dumplings with chicken. Chutneys - a traditional spread which is eaten during festival and special occasions. Think of a piping hot noodle soup, it consists of a variety of spices and vegetables. Some foods contain spice.

What to bring?

When travelling to Nepal, I suggest you bring:

- A water bottle with a reliable water filter
- Hiking shoes as well as a pair of slippers
- A Nepal power adapter
- Sunscreen and sunhat
- A rain jacket, this is water proof, insulates you.
- A scarf for your neck.
- A pair of wooly gloves
- A hat.

Early life

Baroness Doreen Lawrence was born in Jamaica 1952. She emigrated to England at only 9 years old. She went to school in east London before becoming a bank worker. In 1972, she married Neville Lawrence, their son Stephen Lawrence was born in 1974. Stuart was born in 1974 and Georgina was born in 1982.

Baroness Doreen Lawrence

Who is Baroness Doreen Lawrence?

Baroness Doreen Lawrence was a mother to Stephen Lawrence who was killed in a racist attack. Doreen Lawrence told the police but they did not do enough about it. She kept on fighting for justice and still is she would does not want this to happen to anyone else because she now knows how much pain she had to get through.

Family

Murder of Stephen Lawrence Following the murder of their son Stephen in 1993, Doreen and Neville Lawrence claimed that the Metropolitan Police investigation was not being conducted in a professional way, citing bad work and racism as prime flaws. In 1999, after years of campaigning a wide-ranging judicial inquiry was established to investigate the circumstances of Stephen Lawrence's death. The public inquiry was the subject of intense media interest which became international when it concluded that the Metropolitan Police was "institutionally racist".

Quotes

"Baroness Lawrence had been faced by a "terrible tragedy", yet picked herself up and carried on fighting to ensure that justice could be done. What is most striking about this woman is the great strength that she has shown over decades - strength to carry on, to keep on going, even in the most difficult times when all seemed impossible." "Also striking is the persistence that she has shown, because she has never given up. And finally, what is most impressive about this game-changer is that throughout it all, over the years, despite blow after blow, she has dealt with everything with absolute dignity."

Theresa May,
