L.Q: Can I complete my diary entries?

PP3
As I glided towards to what felt like forward, I noticed a small action figure. At first I thought it was superman who wanted to save me but then as it got closer it looked more like a pirate. "Ahooy who are you? Why you trespassing on my land?" You are gonna walk the plank when we get me here ship," he pointed his sword in my direction "ahh" I screamed as he hit me with his sword "ohh really sharp" * ✓

P.S I'm writing ^{part of} this in the sky. ✓

My exhausting chat with the pirate is now over even though I miss him a little, but everyone will lose something or someone. Suddenly a huge boat blept out of the water grabbed me by my hands, "Whoa whoa" I screamed a bit too loudly as the whole plunged back into the water. In the water again, I saw millions of dancing, tiny plastics. I was in a OTSCO. The whale, who I called Sapphire, because he was blue, took me really deep into the ocean. I didn't know where we were going but we were definitely going somewhere. After a while Sapphire dropped me off at what looked like a island. It was like I went on a taxi ride but in the moon. There I was looking at a tapestry of stars. It was beautiful the moon was shining bright. I had to say bye to the whale Sapphire it was heartbreaking losing to friends. ✓

The island turned out to be a rubbish island. I was shocked at how many of me there are. *

* He was ^{by far} the angriest action figure I have seen and I have seen alot of action figures in my lif.

1.1.22 * Meanwhile, I searched the rubbish island to see if I could find the pirate. Yes, I found him chatting to another piece of plastic. So he must have been dropped by the garbage part today. Now I was in dreamland I could just relax. But I couldn't because there was a strong fishy smell drifting towards me. What could it be?
