

Start Well Early Years Communication and Language Development Tips of the Month for Parents – June 2024

The more chances a child gets to take a turn, the more chances they get to learn

Parents with babies:

- I like you to repeat back to me what I am babbling.
- I like to watch your face and copy your facial expressions.

Parents with toddlers:

- When you are blowing bubbles with me, wait between blowing to let me tell you I want more.
- I can play turn-taking games, like rolling a ball back and forth with a grown up.

Parents with young children:

- I can join in with conversations with you about what we are doing.
- I can watch what my friends are doing and join in with them.

Activities to try at home

Parents with babies:

- Copy my sounds and actions, give me time to think and respond. Take turns and have a 'conversation'.

Parents with toddlers

- Take turns with me when we are building blocks.
- Play 'ready, steady, go' with bubbles or rolling a ball. Remember to wait before you say 'go' to give me a chance to take a turn and show I am ready.

Parents with young children

- Play 'hide and seek' with me. Encourage me to hide whilst you find me and then you can hide, and I can find you. Praise me when I am taking turns.
