

School Aims

It is our aim to:

Develop teachers for the future and hope to get the teachers of the future in our schools.

To give beginning teachers the opportunity to work practically in a number of schools.

To develop our own staff as mentors and to be deliverers of quality teaching, as well as enhancing their own professionalism, to reflect on their own practice.