

Journal - Easter 2020

Sunday, 29 March 2020 18:42

- Keep a journal of your 2020 Easter break.

You never know, it might feature in a history lesson one day.

Choose from 1, 2 or 3 to write about each day:

What have you done today?

What have you learnt today?

What have you enjoyed today?

Can you trust it?

What type(s) of news have you seen today?

What is happening?

How does it make you feel?

Music with Mrs Murray

What music are you listening to today?

Why did you choose this music?

How does it make you feel?

Get creative - add pictures you've taken or drawings.

You could create a cartoon depicting the pandemic and add it.

Day 1: Monday 6th April 2020

Today I did some work and played some games. I learned how to get better at my Xbox game. I enjoyed doing some work.

Day 2: Tuesday 7th April 2020

Did even more work and made a chocolate cake! I learned how to make a cake without any help. I enjoyed making the cake.

Day 3: Wednesday 8th April 2020

On the news today Boris Johnson had been taken to intensive care. The coronavirus is effecting the whole world. This makes me sad and bad for all the people affected.

Day 4: Thursday 9th April 2020

Today I am listening to random playlists while doing school work. I chose to listen to random playlists to see if there are any new songs I like. It makes me feel happy.

Day 5: Friday 10th April 2020

Today I have just chilled out playing Xbox. I've learned nothing today. I've enjoyed not having to do work.

Day 6: Monday 11th April 2020

In the news today its reported apple and google have joined forces to develop covid-19 technology. It makes me feel good that the world are all joining together to beat the coronavirus.

Day 7: Tuesday 12th April 2020

Today I did some work to catch up. I learned what happened in the Titanic. I've enjoyed learning about the Titanic.

Day 8: Wednesday 13th April 2020

Today I had another day were I did nothing. I learned nothing today. It was good to not have the pressure of work.

Day 9: Thursday 14th April 2020

In the news today was that some social distancing will be needed until a vaccine is found. Today is expected to announce another 3 weeks of Lockdown.

Day 10: Friday 15th April 2020

Today I did some work. I learned about the History of France. I enjoyed doing my science work.
