Remembrance Day 2024

Remembrance Day, which is observed on the second Sunday of November each year, has its origins in Armistice Day, which is celebrated on November 11:

Armistice Day

Celebrates the signing of the armistice that ended World War I on November 11, 1918. The first Armistice Day celebration was in 1919 at Buckingham Palace, where King George V hosted a banquet, and a two-minute silence was held at 11 AM.

Remembrance Day

After World War II, the British government replaced Armistice Day with Remembrance Sunday to honour all British and Commonwealth service members who have died in conflicts since World War I. The date was fixed as the second Sunday of the month in 1956.

Poppies

The poppy became a symbol of Remembrance after World War I, inspired by the poem "In Flanders Fields" by John McCrae. Poppies grew in the fields of World War I and are still sold today for charity.

Remembrance Day is marked by ceremonies at war memorials, attended by veterans, members of the armed forces, and youth organisations.

This month saw the 10 and 11th of November. on Sunday 10th November was Remembrance Day were the country fell silent for 2 minutes to pay respect to all the fallen soldiers and animals of all wars across the globe. In school we had a 1-minute silence to pay our respects to all those men, women, boys and girls that unfortunately died and gave up their tomorrow for our todays. On Saturday the 10th saw King Charles III leading the Remembrance Saturday parade in London. – Chloe R

The Exhortation

*"They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old, Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun,
and in the morning,
We will remember them."*

When You Go Home, Tell
Them of Us and Say,
For Your Tomorrow, We Gave Our Today.

Recent Updates

Brazilian Grand Prix

Between the 1st and the 3rd of November, we had the Brazilian Grand Prix

Qualifying

Qualifying was postponed to the morning of the race due to the weather. In that session there were 5 red flags for 5 separate incidents where people were spinning into the barriers. The engineers were working overtime trying to get the cars ready for the race which was just 3 hours away. Alex Albon's car was not ready in time leaving an empty spot on the grid.

Race

On the formation lap, Lance Stroll spun into the barriers and then drove into the gravel trap beaching himself. Due to his car being stranded the formation lap was abandoned. The race eventually started with everyone behind the safety car. 30 laps in Carlos Sainz crashed into the barriers causing the safety car to come out, but during the safety car, Franco Colapinto spun around bringing out the red flag.

Results

The result was Max Verstappen with 26 points, Esteban Ocon with 18 and Pierre Gasly rounding out the podium with 15 points. The two Alpines don't usually finish in the top 10 so the podium is a very good achievement for Esteban and Pierre.

Las Vegas Grand Prix

Over the course of the last weekend (22nd, 23rd, 24th of November) we had the Las Vegas Grand Prix!

Qualifying

During Q2, Franco Colapinto crashed into the barrier at the tight corners of 14, 15 and 16 leaving the Williams mechanics with a long night ahead of them. George Russel got pole ahead of Carlos Sainz with Pierre Gasly in 3rd.

Race

At the start Charles Leclerc overtook Gasly and Sainz on the inside to take 2nd place. Later, Pierre Gasly's car burst into flames as the car hit the RPM (revs per minute) limit. A similar thing happened to Alex Albon a few laps later. Nothing much happened later other than Max Verstappen being overtaken by the Ferraris.

Post Race

George Russel won with Lewis Hamilton in 2nd and Carlos Sainz in 3rd, but the big news was Max Verstappen is a Four Time World Champion! He had to finish 3 points ahead of Lando Norris and he finished in P5 over Lando in P6.

Poetry & Prose

Lifeburnt

Hot, stable heart set ablaze,
 your anger was like silk to thorn.
 My happiness burned like a forest and the fire spread thoroughly.

I used to thrive under your light,
 your warm embrace encasing me.
 But as soon as I made a grave mistake,
 Warmth turned to magma.

It wasn't intentional, not purposeful!
 I cried out to you helplessly.
 My tears flooded my blindness,
 They faded to lava and charred my gullible, soft face.

Now my body is riddled with danger and defence,
 I used to be a flower,
 But with my openings,
 And my blazed enragement,
 I've grown into a volcano.

Przypominający Smak

Rozmawiać we własnym języku brzmi krzywo, jak bym nie rozumiała co ja mówię.
 Przypominający smak w buzi leży.
 Dobrze mi jest, zbierać jagody w lesie jak jest wiosna.
 Czuć słońce na zimnej skórze w tym samym miejsce który ty miałaś dzieciństwo.
 Jak byłam młodsza, to ludzie używali słowa żeby mogli mi zranić.
 Teraz moje słowa siedzą z tyłu, schowane i sekretne, bo nikt inny mnie nie rozumie oprócz ludzie który przyszli od tego samego miejsca jak ja.

Tears and Blood

A singular ruby plant growing from the ground below, carrying the tears and blood of those who fought,
 with heavy helmets and the weight of peace upon their backs, carrying the world to survival seemed heavier.
 their souls returned to their home countries with bruises and scars to prove the battles' occurrence.
 At 11, the environment grew quieter and the fear rotted away, both of which linger to this day.

Flashing Lights

waiting for you in the deep centre of the blackened sky lay stars that are yet to turn to dust.
 fireworks rummage against the protective layer above us, orbiting our souls.
 various colour shades await for your eyes to glare and breathe in the sensation of comfort in flashing lights.

Technology

Apple is developing a new version of the iPhone SE, which is expected to feature some major changes. In addition to a new, larger size, Apple will also do away with Touch ID, and add support for Apple Intelligence.

-Kamsi O

The current third generation iPhone SE is Apple's smallest device, modelled after the iPhone 8. It measures in at 4.7 inches, and it is the only iPhone that includes thick bezels and a Touch ID Home button. That's rumoured to be changing with the next iPhone SE update, with rumours indicating that Apple has a new design planned. The fourth-generation iPhone SE will feature an all-display design like Apple's flagship iPhone lineup, with Apple eliminating the Touch ID Home button in favour of Face ID. The display is said to measure in at 6.06 inches, so it will be significantly larger than the current iPhone SE.

The next iPhone SE is expected to look similar to the iPhone 14, featuring a notch with Face ID biometric authentication instead of a Touch ID Home button. With the iPhone 15 lineup, Apple transitioned to USB-C instead of Lightning, and the iPhone SE 4 is also expected to include a USB-C port. While the iPhone 14 has a dual-lens camera, the iPhone SE 4 will include a single-lens camera to keep costs down, but it could have the 48-megapixel Main lens used in the iPhone 15.

Though rumours have suggested that the iPhone SE 4 will have a design modelled after the iPhone 14, Apple is expected to use the same rear chassis manufacturing process for the SE 4 that it used for the iPhone 16. Apple may also add a multi-function Action button to the iPhone SE, replacing the mute switch. An Action button first came to the iPhone 15 Pro models, but Apple added it to all models with the iPhone 16. It is not clear if the iPhone SE 4 will get an Action button, because a recent case leak did not depict a cutout for the button.

The iPhone SE 4 is expected to have the same A18 chip that's in the iPhone 16, which will allow it to support Apple Intelligence features.

-Kamsi O

Conclusion

I'm not an apple person but I'm really excited for the iPhone SE 4

The Curse of the Wendigo by Autumn T Chapter 2: The Hunt

Time: 12:04. Location: Black-Fox Forest.

I met up with Jackstern at the gate of the Black-Fox Forest. I don't like this forest as every winter people go missing... Maybe it's to do with that thing?

I heard a truck approach. It was Jackstern's old red truck, I can see some dried-up mud on the tires but it's not useless.

I wave my hand as I see Jackstern exit his truck, I also see that he has 2 Browning A5 Magnum 12fa 3 Shotguns swung over his Shoulder. I've never seen him so serious about this creature.

"Hey...so, we're killing this thing, huh?". I said in a slightly shaky voice.

"Yes. Yes, we are, this monster is the reason why my sister is missing".

I freeze in Disbelief. "Sister? S-since when?!--"

"Since two nights ago Kyle." His voice... filled with anger and desire for revenge.

"Why didn't you tell me sooner?" I said in a serious voice, why didn't he tell me sooner? I could've helped him.

But he stayed silent and threw me a shotgun. I sighed and followed him into the forest. I prayed we didn't get lost in those woods. They are very dense and even harder to navigate in the winter, as the snow gets to four inches deep... lucky I was prepared for the snow.

A few more hours later, Jackstern and I were cold and the snow was picking up. We couldn't go back yet, we were already so far into those woods.

"Hey, maybe we should rest and set up a tent or something? It's getting very dark, and I don't want some hungry wolf eating me alive." I said in a shaky and annoyed tone at him.

"Fine, but I'm staying guard for the night, who knows what'll attack". Jackstern's voice was annoyed and angry.

I stayed quiet as we found a clear spot in the trees. I helped him set up a fire and the tent. We had some food and something to drink. I sat by the fire to warm up before I entered the tent and went to sleep. But Jackstern stayed guard for the night, hopefully he'll be alright in the morning.

Jackstern shook me awake. I stirred and said in a groggy voice, "Ugh, why so early?".

"Because we can't stay in this spot for too long, it's most likely caught our scent, so we need to move now and fast."

I groan but he's right, whatever that thing is, it's probably hunting us as well. So I got up and packed up the tent and other things. Before we left, I made sure we got everything. I followed Jackstern on the snow-covered trail, holding my shotgun tightly as we walked through the deep snow, our footsteps crunching with every step we took. But then Jackstern stopped, I didn't notice and bumped into him.

"What the hell Jack—" Then I saw the hoof prints, leading off the trail. "Surely it's just a deer, right?". I said in a confused tone.

"No. The wind is still strong, they'd be hiding" His tone was still filled with anger but certainty.

So, I hesitantly followed him off the trail as we followed the hoof prints. It led far from the trail so as a smart idea, I placed a trail marker on a tree so we would know where to go when we came back. If we came back anyway...

Recipe of the Month

Parkin Loaf

Parkin is a cake, traditionally eaten throughout November, most prominently on the 5th of November to commemorate Guy Fawkes' failed attempt to blow up parliament.

Yorkshire parkin is usually made with black treacle, and Lancashire parkin with golden syrup, this recipe has a combination of the two!

The exact origins of parkin are unknown, but it was first referenced around the early 1700s.

A recipe has no soul. You as the cook must bring soul to the recipe.

– Thomas Keller

Ingredients

- 100g butter (a bit extra for greasing the tin.)
- 100g light brown, soft sugar
- 100g black treacle
- 100g golden syrup
- 150ml milk
- 2 large eggs
- 125g plain flour
- 1 tsp baking powder
- 100g porridge oats
- 4 tsp ground ginger
- 2 tsp ground cinnamon
- 1 tsp ground mixed spice

Method

1. Preheat your oven to 180 °C.
2. Lightly grease a loaf tin with butter and line with baking.
3. Weigh the butter, brown sugar, treacle and golden syrup into a pan.
4. Set your pan on a low heat and let all the ingredients melt down to a dark syrup.
5. Take the pan off the heat and leave to cool (adding hot liquid to eggs will cook them and spoil the recipe.)
6. Measure the milk into a jug, crack the 2 eggs into it and beat lightly.
7. Weigh out the flour, baking powder, porridge oats and spices into a large mixing bowl.
8. The cooled treacle mix can be added to all the dry ingredients and given a good stir. Stir until you have something that looks like stiff dough.
9. Now gradually add the milk and egg mixture, bit by bit. (The mixture will look almost too liquid. It's going to be fine, don't worry.)
10. Pour the cake mixture into the lined loaf tin and put in the oven for 40-50 minutes. When you see the cake coming away from the sides and when you can put a skewer through its middle which comes out clean it's ready!
11. Let it cool in the tin on a wire rack as it is very brittle while hot. It will need to cool for at least 20 minutes before you can eat it.

Anti-Bullying Ambassadors

Article by the Anti Bullying Ambassadors.

This month the Anti-Bullying Ambassadors put on a Choose Respect assembly to try and promote respect and tolerance within the school. On Wednesday 13th November we participated in an online anti bullying webinar across the UK. For antibullying week, the school wore odd socks on Tuesday 12th November.

We have also put on a inter house competition to design a pair of odd socks. We met to decide on the top design, which are featured on page 15!

There is a safe space for anybody who is a victim of bullying or just wanting to talk to somebody in the Careers Office at break and lunchtimes every day.

The Anti bullying Ambassadors will be going to Kirkham on the 28th of January 2025 to participate in the Diana Award. You can find out more about the Diana Award via this Website link <https://diana-award.org.uk/>.

We Choose Respect

Choose Respect, it's Fundamental,
Essential in life and elemental,
Without it, relationships can be temperamental,
Which can end up being detrimental.

Choose to Respect everyone's perspective,
A difference in opinion, that's our prerogative.
Listen to others and be appreciative,
Rather than inconsiderate and argumentative.

Choose to respect the disrespectful,
Don't allow them to feel powerful.
Don't fight back with words that are hurtful,
Or act impulsively and end up regretful.

Choose to respect the disrespected,
Respect is something that is reflected.
Respect can prevent someone from feeling rejected,
Respect is a cycle that is interconnected.

Choose to make respect an easy decision.
