Trips day

Students are allowed to wear their own clothes, as long as they are appropriate for school and suitable for the activities they will be taking part in. For example, students should not wear crop tops.

Head's team

We are delighted to introduce our new Head's team of students, who have shown exceptional leadership potential and dedication throughout a rigorous application and interview process. Their enthusiasm, thoughtful ideas, and commitment to the school community truly stood out, and we are confident they will make a positive impact in the year ahead. Congratulations to all members of the team – we look forward to seeing your leadership in action!
