Headteacher's Message

This week, year 11 English students watched a performance of A Christmas Carol by Initiate Theatre Company in our Arts Theatre. Feedback from this was very positive!

We now have the traditional ties in stock following positive feedback from parents. If you wish to purchase one, they are now listed in the uniform shop.

Thanks to parents and students who shared their experiences of Remembrance Sunday, we love hearing about anything you are involved in out of school and love to share your successes with our wider community.

Remembrance

Izzy C (E6) writes:

“ I went to London on Remembrance Day to lay a wreath at the Cenotaph. I went with my primary school (Feniscowles Primary School) because we won second place in the history competition we took part in. I was selected with one other person to lay the wreath on the Cenotaph. ”

Christmas lunch

This year our Christmas Lunch will be on Wednesday 11th December. If your child would like a Christmas lunch, please complete the form below by 12 noon on Tuesday 26th November.

Recruitment: Exam invigilators

We are looking to recruit additional invigilators to work alongside an experienced team.

Experience of invigilation is not required as training in the role and duties will be provided.

Hours: Availability required in January for Year 11 Mock Exams (2-3 weeks) and through May/June for Year 11 GCSE's and Year 10 Mock exams.

Rate of pay: £12.00/hr

The role

- Invigilators are the people in examination rooms responsible for conducting exams and supervising candidates, in accordance with the JCQ (Joint Council for Qualifications) and awarding body regulations
- Have a key role in upholding the integrity of the external examination/assessment process
- Must confirm the confidentiality and security requirements surrounding the invigilation process are known, understood and will be followed at all times

An ideal candidate will

- be reliable, flexible and available during main examination periods
- have effective communication skills and good interpersonal skills
- work well as part of a team
- be a confident and reassuring presence to candidates in examination rooms
- be able to give instructions and manage situations involving different groups of people
- have basic IT skills (familiar with use of email, mobile phone messaging etc.)
- seek to achieve competence in the role and a thorough understanding of the JCQ regulations

If you are interested in this role please contact Mrs Caroline Riding - criding@wldhigh.co.uk or call 01772 335726 (ext 4) if you have any questions
