Duke of Edinburgh

Staff have had a wonderful couple of days this week with our 32 Year 9 Duke of Edinburgh students. They have been an incredible group, showing that they can be ready for the challenge, respectful to staff volunteers, peers, and locals, and safe as they explored a new environment –and for some, made new friends.

Staff loved seeing students really step up to the challenge, despite lots of wet weather, unfamiliar routes, and changing landscapes. Events like this require resilience and determination, and staff felt that this year's students truly demonstrated how they are becoming wonderful young adults who don't shy away from a challenge.
