BLACK POETRY DAY
OCTOBER 17

Black Poetry Day on October 17th honours past and present black poets. The day also commemorates the birth of the first published black poet in the United States. Jupiter Hammon

Have fabulous 2 week half term break

Well done to all the pupils and a big thank you to all the staff, for making Wandle such a great place.

A pupil taking any opportunity to read his book .

PRIMARIES

Dr Benjamin Obadiah Iqbal Zephaniah was born and raised in Birmingham, England. He cannot remember a time when he was not creating poetry but this had nothing to do with school where poetry meant very little to him, in fact he had finished full time education at the age of 13 .His poetry is strongly influenced by the music and poetry of Jamaica and what he calls 'street politics'.

Friday 21 October,

We will be welcoming representatives from a wide range of local colleges and training providers to a

Careers Morning at Wandle Valley. Pupils in KS4 will be encouraged to speak informally to each of the providers to learn about the facilities and courses on offer.

This is a great opportunity for pupils to practise their social skills with unfamiliar adults and learn about the realistic expectations of post-16 courses

Thursday 24th November

Pupils in KS4 have been invited to attend a Preparing for Adulthood Event at Sutton Life Centre. At this event Sutton will be showcasing services and local indicatives to support young people with some of the questions and guidance pupils may need around 4 key topics:

independence, community inclusion, supported employment and health.
